

Reflection and action

Today you learnt about Lucy and her life in Uganda. Life can be very different and difficult for children in some parts of the world, but there are ways we can help each other out...we can share.

Think back over what you have discovered and finish the following sentences.

I was surprised to find out... _____

The most interesting thing I learnt was... _____

I'd like to know more about... _____

I wonder if... _____

I don't understand... _____

I would like to share Lucy's story with... _____

One thing I'd like to do to help others is... _____
